Niseko and Rusutsu Area

Niseko and Rusutsu Area is one of the nation’s largest ski resorts. Nearby are many attractions, such as ski slopes and the famous ski resort of Rusutsu. The area is rich in nature and allows for snowboarding, cross-country skiing, and other winter sports.

Ortonawa Area

Ortonawa Area is a premium ski resort in the heart of Niseko. It offers a variety of slopes, including a beginner area, a middle area, and an advanced area. Visitors can enjoy a high-quality ski experience with numerous facilities, such as ski schools and restaurants.

Sapporo and Otaru Area

Sapporo and Otaru Area is the perfect destination for winter sports enthusiasts. The area boasts world-class ski slopes and stunning views of the surrounding mountains. In Otaru, visitors can enjoy winter activities such as snowboarding and skiing, as well as cultural experiences like attending festivals and exploring local shops.

Sapporo Snow Festival

The Sapporo Snow Festival is one of Japan’s most famous winter events. It features elaborate snow sculptures and ice carvings, as well as live music and cultural performances.

Kamikawa and Furano Area

Kamikawa and Furano Area is a popular winter destination known for its beautiful scenery and high-quality ski slopes. In Kamikawa, visitors can enjoy winter sports, as well as cultural experiences like attending traditional festivals. Furano is famous for its winter activities, such as snowboarding and skiing, and is home to a number of ski resorts.

Furano Ski Resort

Furano Ski Resort is one of Japan’s most popular ski resorts, offering a variety of slopes for skiers of all levels. Visitors can enjoy snowboarding and skiing, as well as cultural experiences like attending traditional festivals.

Tomamu and Sahoro Area

Tomamu and Sahoro Area is a popular winter destination known for its high-quality ski slopes and beautiful scenery. In Tomamu, visitors can enjoy winter sports, as well as cultural experiences like attending traditional festivals. Sahoro is known for its world-class ski slopes and stunning views of the surrounding mountains.

Tomamu Ice Festival

The Tomamu Ice Festival is one of Japan’s most famous winter events. It features elaborate ice sculptures and live music, as well as cultural performances.